Democratic State Convention.

One of the largest crowds ever in attendance at a State Convention in Kentucky was at Lexington yesterday at Woodland Park Auditorium.

At 2:38 o'clock Lewis McQuown Chairman of the State Central Committee called the convention to order and introduced Rev. E. G. B. Mann pastor of the Hill Street Methodist church of Lexington who offered an appropriate and eloquent prayer which was loudly applauded.

Hon. Ollie James then put in nomination the Hon. Owlesley Stanley for temporary chairman. Stanley was elected by acclamation.

James Stone, of Breckinridge, was elected Secretary, and Wm. Cromwell, of Frankfort, Assistant Secretary.

R. K. McCarney, of Bourbon, and Field McLeod, of Woodford, were elected delegates to the Denver Convention from this district.

Hon. J. T. Hinton was made member of Committee on Credentials.

The Convention adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock.

The following telegram was received and read:

Lincoln, Neb., June 10, 1908.

Chairman Democratic State Convention, Lexington, Ky.

"The Democrats of Lincoln, in mass meeting assembled, instruct us to send greetings to the United Democracy of Kentucky, and invite delegation to stop off on the way to Denver.

"WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN."

"HENRY WATTERSON."

Cheers greeted the reading of the message.

Racing is Knocked Out.

The New York Senate yesterday passed the penal code race track bill by a vote of 26 to 25.

The Assembly having already passed the measure this action finally kills racing in New York and comes in the nature of a death blow to breeding and racing interests in the South.

30,000 Hogsheads Sold.

Mr. J. A. Larue, President of the Bourbon County Tobacco Society, informed a News man yesterday that 30,000 hogsheads of the 1906 crop of the Equity tobacco had been sold at from 14 cents down and that about $30,000 will arrive here the latter part of this week for distribution. He also stated that the 21,000 hogsheads remaining cannot be purchased for less than 16 cents. There is good prospects for the remainder to be disposed of at an early date.

Watterson Visits Bryan.

As the Hon. Henry Watterson left Louisville Monday night to visit William Jennings Bryan at Lincoln, Neb., he said:

"I am merely going to avail myself of a business call to Chicago to accept Mr. Bryan's invitation to run over to Lincoln. There are lots of things to talk about. There will be but one real issue in the coming struggle, and that is the case of the people against predatory wealth."

"This has been very well put up by Mr. Roosevelt, but Mr. Bryan represents it in all its length, breadth and thickness. If Mr. Roosevelt were the candidate of the Republicans there might be some question as to the 'original Jacobs' between him and Mr. Bryan. But Mr. Taft can stand on no platform setting forth the Roosevelt policies."

"He is by far closer to what are called Wall street interests than Fairbanks Hughes and Knox. His nomination means the Republican party wearing the mask of Roosevelt whilst using the claws of Harriman, Morgan and Company. If Mr. Bryan cannot beat this combine, nobody can. He is its logical antagonist, and therefore our logical candidate."

"All suggestions to the contrary are misleading. They are, in point of fact, weak devices of the enemy."

"You feel certain," he was asked, "that Mr. Bryan's nomination is assured?"

"Mr. Bryan," said Mr. Watterson, "will be nominated by acclamation at Denver on the first and only ballot. The only thing left outstanding to be considered by Democrats are the second place on the ticket, the platform and the chairmanship of the National Committee."

MATRIMONIAL.

A quiet yet pretty wedding was that of Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Anna Franklin Marsh and Mr. Howard D. Carpenter were made one by the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford at "Greenwood," the beautiful country home of the bride near town.

The bride is a daughter of the late James Nicholas Marsh, and one of the most estimable young women of our county. The groom is from Massachusetts, but is now a member of the faculty of the University of Missouri at Columbus. We congratulate him on winning this attractive and accomplished young woman for his life partner.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for their future home at Columbus, Mo.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

Upon convening the Court Tuesday morning, Judge R. L. Stout called the criminal docket, which is the lightest in the history of the court for a number of years.

Upon motion of her attorney, Maurie Kemper, of Lexington, the case of the Commonwealth vs. Nancy Shropshire was continued till next Tuesday.

Commonwealth vs. Carlton Wells, both sides answered ready and after hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. John Dobyns, a negro, the facts being admitted and submitted to the court, a fine of $200 was entered. The cases of the Commonwealth against Ben Lewis, Jesse Claypool, Sam Calamey, Jesse Murray, Will Lear, Charles Weaver, Asa Bratton, were continued.

Commonwealth vs. Charles McWilliams, J. J. Walsh, Charles Delaney, James Lawrence and Ben Boney were filed away.

Commonwealth vs. Sid Winkler, on appeal from the county court, was also filed away.

The call of the criminal docket being completed Judge Stout excused the petit jurors till Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday morning Judge Stout called the appearance equity docket. After motion hour and the filing of a number of orders court was adjourned until Saturday morning. However, the Judge will be present Friday morning to hear motions if the State Democratic Convention completes its business Thursday.

Bourbon Boy in St. Louis Wreck.

Harry Redmon, proprietor of the Navarre Billiard Hall, of St. Louis, Mo., was one of the persons seriously hurt in the terrible street car wreck in St. Louis, a few days ago. He was terribly mashed up, but the report now comes of hopes for his recovery. He is a son of the late Mason T. Redmon, of this county, and a brother of Mrs. Pearl Davis, of Indianapolis, Ind., who recently visited Mr. and Mrs. H. O. James, in this city.

Mr. Redmon left Bourbon when a small lad to make his way through the world without a dollar to start on. He is now considered one of the wealthy men of St. Louis, and is yet but a young man.

Change of Program at the Grand.

The patrons of the vaudeville theatre were greeted with an entire change of program from beginning to end last night, which is one of the strongest ever seen in this popular playhouse, and should have the effect of adding to the vast crowds that attend each evening.

The bill last night opened with some of the latest motion pictures, which were followed by the ever-popular black-faced favorite Hi Tom Ward, who bears the reputation of being one of the best minstrel men in the business today and has toured with some of the leading aggregations in the country, and last year was the headliner with John W. Vogel. Ward has a monologue that is a scream. His jokes are the newest, his songs the latest and are executed in such a manner that they never fail to score a hit.

Besides this there are the illustrated song and West and Benton, who in their musical comedy sketch, are without equals. Their efforts were well received by the large audience present last night, and their presence on the program adds much to its superiority.

To those who have not had the good fortune of seeing Ward and West and Benton we will say that they are without doubt the best in the business, and one cannot help but enjoy an evening at the Grand.

This is but another sample of the efforts that the management is putting forth to secure the best for the people of Paris, and we believe that our theatre-goers are being awakened to the situation.

Tonight will be amateur night, and some of the best home-talents will make their appearance. This feature is arousing interest among the home people, who are theatrically inclined, and is creating a desire among them to compete for the cash prizes that are being offered by the management for the best vaudeville act.

There will also be a special matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the ladies and children.

Thos. C. Lyng Suicides.

The following special appeared in yesterday's Courier-Journal from El Paso, Tex.:

"Thomas C. Lyng, an attorney, who came to Santa Fe, N. M., from Kentucky about eight months ago, was found dead with a bullet hole in his head this morning by Janitor Miguel Rodriguez in the law office of R. H. Hanna, of that place. In a letter to Hanna, Lyng, who was 45 years old, and who had not been doing well financially, said he had been despondent for some time and that life was intolerable to him. He asked Hanna's forgiveness for desecrating the office. Lyng has a brother who is a clerk in the Santa Fe Central office at Santa Fe."

Thos. C. Lyng, was formerly of this city and no young man ever had better prospects for a bright future in law than he when he was engaged in the practice of his profession here with the late Hon. G. C. Lockhart. Misfortune overtook him, however, and his numerous old friends in Bourbon will regret to hear of his sad ending. He was a class-mate of the late P. I. McCarthy, and two brighter young men never left a college better prepared to battle in this old business world than these two.

Some of History's Minor Figures

Death has recently been busy with the lesser celebrities of the past generation.

At Traverse City, Mich., died Daniel Whipple, who in 1843 guided Gen. Fremont on his memorable surveying and exploring expeditions across the Rockies, one result of which was the discovery of the Great Salt Lake. Whipple was an Indian war scout and a boon companion of "Kit" Carson. He joined the forty-niners. Another forty-niner, Levi Hanford, died in Washington May 27.

At Hutchinson, Kan., died one of the few surviving companions of Walker on his filibustering expeditions, Dewitt C. Gallup. Gallup had also served under Lopez in Cuba. The passing of the old-time scout and soldier of fortune brings vividly to mind the day of adventure which constitute a unique chapter in the development of the Republic.

At Long Branch died Mrs. Mary Mitchell Albaugh, a name reviving war-time stage memories. Mrs. Mitchell was a widow of John W. Albaugh and first appeared as Topsy in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in 1855. The death of Arnold Kiralfy, youngest brother of Imre and Bolossy Kiralfy, stimulates recollections of "The Black Crook" and stage spectacle on an unprecedented scale of magnificence.

William P. Boardman, who superintended the construction of the old New York and Harlem Railway, died at De Smet, S. Dak.

These several relicts of a generation gone played only a small part in national progress. Yet a certain romantic interest attaches to them. To have crossed the plains on mule-back with Fremont and to have lived across them in one of Harriman's palace cars was an experience.

Milking the Corporations.

An esteemed contemporary gives vent to this chunk of wisdom:

"With a special committee of a Republican Congress investigating the currency problem, and the Ways and Means Committee of a Republican House studying the tariff schedules during the Presidential campaign, it seems unlikely that the Republican campaign fund will be small or hard to gather.

"Besides, there is the Practical Man who knows when to shoo and how to milk the corporations."

In view of the story of Roosevelt's deal with the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, this seems to be personal.

While railroad earnings and dividend are declining, railroad stocks are advancing. Is anything else needed to show that the upward trend of the Wall Street stock is being manipulated?

There is a tax on imported goods to make them high. But there is no tax on imported labor to increase the wages of our workingmen. Why, then do workingmen vote for a protective tariff?

Wages of the Cotton operatives at Fall River, Massachusetts, have been reduced 18 per cent. How much has the cost of living and trust prices declined? Is Labor protected as the Republican politicians brazenly declare it is?

It looks as if the tomb of Grant has become also the grave of Taft, Nil nisi bonum.

Secretary Taft was absent from his duties last week from Wednesday until Saturday. But his pay went on.

The wheat crop this year is six points above the ten-year average. Of course, the Republicans have done it... But they didn't produce the panic of 1907; did they?

Rebates are bad things. But what about the rebates? Roosevelt and Paul Morton think rebates are all right, though rebates are all wrong. It's a difference between the abstract and the concrete.

High Prices and Tariff.

The continued high cost of living and the declared intention of some of the Trusts and Combines to hold out for high prices must force the American people to consider the tariff and economic conditions in the coming campaign. As it is, the people are facing the extraordinary predicament of decreased wages and incomes and but little if any reduction in prices of Trust products. Many raw materials, such as iron, copper, cotton and wool are much lower in price, but the finished products produced by the Trusts are high in price as ever for they still insist on such large profits that retail prices average nearly as much as they were before the panic. The price of iron has decreased about 30 per cent., but the tariff protected Steel Trust has made no reduction in the price of its products to the American consumers, although steel products for export to foreign lands are being sold at a great reduction in price. Other trusts and combines, of which the Beef Combine is a sample, have even increased prices here and are also charged with selling abroad at a much less price.

The question, therefore, is whether the voters of the United States must settle at the coming election is whether they will continue in power the Republican party, the policies of which protect the Trusts instead of curbing them. The Republican National platform may declare for a revision of the tariff, but it will also declare for the principle of protection.

Is a protective tariff right in principle? Is it just and equal in practice? If not, is it honest?

Do They Want Roosevelt?

When the Republican "allies" issue statements predicting that Taft will be defeated in the Chicago Convention what do they mean? That Roosevelt will be nominated?

Surely none of the "allies" believes that Hughes or Knox or Fairbanks or Cannon or Foraker can take the nomination away from Taft in a convention controlled by Theodore Roosevelt. That is too silly for serious consideration even on a hot day. The situation remains precisely what it was months ago when the President began to tell his visitors: "If they don't take Taft they'll get me." There is no way of beating Taft except by taking Roosevelt, who is still holding the threat of his own candidacy over the heads of his opponents.

If the "allies" do not know this, they do not know anything. The plain question is: "Do they want Roosevelt?"

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiflammatory. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering, coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. An acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennington Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action on the stomach. It is especially useful in cases of ulceration of the stomach (catarrhal gastritis) and excessive gastritis (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood, curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. for a booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

Blacking.
Liquid blacking, such as is now used, was invented early in the nineteenth century. Previously various mixtures were used. There are many allusions in eighteenth century literature to shoe blacks and blacking. In the London World of Jan. 31, 1754, Edward Moore, describing the miseries of an author, says that he would rather have started in life as a shoeblack had he but had the money to buy or credit to procure "a stool, brushes and blackball." An old kind of blacking consisted of ivory black, very coarse moist sugar and water, with a little vinegar. A mixture of whale oil and soot was used in Gay's time. The author of "Trivia" has several allusions to the "black youth" who stood at street corners then, as now:

Hark! The boy calls thee to his destin'd stand,
And the shoe shines beneath his oily hand.

De Foe makes his Colonel Jack describe himself when a boy as a dirty vagabond, "like a 'Black your shoes, your honor?' a beggar boy, a blackguard boy or what you please, despicable and miserable to the last degree."

Here is another quotation from "Trivvia" (1715):

His treble voice resounds along the mews,
And Whitehall echoes, "Clean your honor's shoes!"

—London Notes and Querles.

Arab Weapons.

Here in Muscat I saw the pure bred Arab man, sinewy, but not tall, a domineering, swaggering nobleness in his glance and a brace of daggers in his waist. When I recognized a beautiful haft or noticed a slender inlaid native gun or singular shield, I offered to buy, but nothing would induce them to sell. "Sahib," said one man, "I killed my deadliest foe with this blade, right through his black heart. You see this dent in my shield? Ah, that dent was caused by a spear! The shield saved my life. Shall I, then, sell it for money? My gun? No, sahib. I am an Arab, and my gun is my other self. How could I be an Arab if I had no gun? This sword—it belonged to my grandfather—it has killed forty men. By Mohammed, it is true! These marks, sahib; you see these marks? Only one of these marks is put there when a man is killed." I offered three times the value. The answer always was: "No, sahib, I will not. I cannot."—Chambers' Journal.

Some Odd Pockets.

"A music pocket?" said the tailor. "Oh, yes, for professional singers I often make music pockets. They run across the back of the coat, as a rule, above the waist, and they hold, without crushing, a half dozen songs. I have three or four detectives among my patrons, and in their business suits I always put handcuff pockets. These pockets are in the sleeves. Their advantage is that the handcuffs can be drawn forth without the prisoner's seeing the action. When a rambunctious prisoner sees a detective's hand go toward an ordinary pocket he knows what is coming and prepares accordingly, but with my special pocket the handcuff is on him before he knows where he is at. One of my patrons has his trousers lined from the knee down with leather. Do you know why? Because a dog once bit a large chunk out of the calf of his leg, and he doesn't want to incur such a loss again."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Death Was On His Heels.
Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

Badly Sprained Ankle Cured.

Three years ago our daughter sprained her ankle and had been suffering terribly for two days and nights—had not slept a minute. Mr. Stallings, of Butler, Tenn., told us of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We went to the store that night and got a bottle of it and bathed her ankle two or three times and she went to sleep and had a good night's rest. The next morning she was much better and in a short time could walk around and had no more trouble with her ankle.—E. M. BRUMITT, Hampton, Tenn. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. T. Brooks. THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."

"Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

QA torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness. QIn families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder afflictions. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

WALTER A. WOOD
MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. The same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" principle, fully in our mowers. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one, but we are the only ones that have it. Walter A. Wood Mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are: the easiest to run; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair; longest lasting. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

DEATHS.

The citizens of this city were shocked at an early hour Tuesday morning by the announcement of the sudden death of Nathan Bayless, at his home on Mt. Airy avenue.

The deceased had been, apparently, enjoying good health and his sudden death was a great blow to his family and friends. He had at times complained of pains in his right arm and side but apprehended no serious results.

On Monday night his right arm became numb and the pains passed into his body. However, he arose at an early hour and dressed and started to his place of business, but immediately returned and called on Dr. Silas Evans, who occupied a room in his residence, but he was beyond human aid and quickly expired.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Bedford Bayless, and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth. He was the son of Mrs. Rebecca Hughes by her first marriage. His father, Mr. Bayless, died many years ago at New Orleans of yellow fever. The deceased was a half-brother of Mrs. Bruce Miller.

Mr. Bayless was in his fifty-second year. He was a devoted and loving husband, father, son and brother, a consistent member of the Christian church, seldom being absent from any of the meetings of his church. He was a loyal friend, a man of the highest integrity in business dealings, a man possessing all the qualifications that makes a good and useful citizen.

The funeral services were held at the residence Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan, assisted by Elder J. S. Sweeney and Rev. G. W. Clarke. Burial in Paris cemetery.

The pallbearers were as follows: Alex Baird, W. P. Hume, W. E. Board, Dr. Silas Evans, John Roseberry, James Daugherty, A. T. Forsyth, N. C. Rogers, C. L. Steinberger, N. H. Bayless, Jr., Dr. C. G. Daugherty, Dr. William Kenney, the first six being active pallbearers.

Mrs. Sarah S. Joyce was granted a divorce from her husband, Wyndham
Joyce by Judge R. L. Stout in Circuit Court Wednesday. She was granted absolute divorce and restored to her maiden name, Sarah S. Withers, with all property rights.

She is a daughter of the late General W. T. Withers, of Lexington, was married to Mr. Joyce in Orange county, Florida, April 5, 1899, and in the petitions in the case the plaintiff charged that her husband abandoned her in 1907, and that his present home is supposed to be Louisville, Ky. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Bailey Berry, of Lexington.

Thompson Takes Appeal.

Wyatt A. Thompson, of this city,
filed an appeal in the United States Court at Cincinnati Wednesday, asking relief from a judgment imprisoning him for debt. The action comes on appeal from Federal Judge Cochran's court, where it was decided that bankruptcy proceedings do not wipe out a judgment of the court in such cases.

This is but a continuance of the litigation between J. O. McClinton and the members of the Republican County Committee, Thompson being one of them. It will be remembered that Mc-Clinton got judgment for $1,500
against each of them for libel. Thompson went into bankruptcy. The case will be decided in October.

Walks Out Second Story Window.

Mr. Louis Nessling, the popular young gentleman who operated the moving picture machine at the Grand met with quite a serious accident Wednesday morning at about 2:30 o'clock.
While asleep in his room at Mrs.
Barlow's boarding house on High street, he walked out of the window, falling a distance of twenty-five feet,
from the effects of which he suffered a dislocation of the collar bone and otherwise painfully bruised about the body.

In the fall Mr. Nessling crashed through a skylight, taking the sash with him, this breaking of the fall probably saved him from an untimely death. Two physicians were immediately summoned to attend the young man, who, we are glad to say, is getting along nicely.

Mr. Nessling is a quiet, gentlemanly young man, who, since coming to Paris with the McMahan & Jackson vaudeville show, has made many friends and regret to hear of his unfortunate fall.

THE CAUSE OF THIS MIGHTY SLAUGHTER.

The critical moment has arrived—that is the situation—here now. The recent stringency of the money market has created a condition which has never occurred before. Circumstances have so shaped themselves that we are forced to slaughter our magnificent stock. We must raise money at all hazards. Our entire capital is tied up in merchandise. We therefore need relief. Heroic sacrifices are sometimes necessary. This is one of the times. We meet the situation promptly and emphatically. The urgent demand for money brought this gigantic money raising sale on Twin Brothers at Paris, which we pass along to you. The enormity of our stock, the vital danger and burden it applies at this critical financial stagnation forces us to reduce stock. Notwithstanding our reputation as givers of best values, we now give an extra twirl to the wheels of trade by offering such astonishing values that competition is not even attempted. It is not necessary to go into details relative to the high class merchandise we carry, for every man, woman and child in Bourbon County and vicinity is well aware of the fact that anything bought from Twin Brothers was the best that money can buy. Come and see for yourselves and be convinced.

Col. Breckinridge's Record.

Mr. Desha Breckinridge, the well-known and able editor, of Lexington, spent two or three days in Washington City last week at the Congressional library, arranging the record of his father, the late and lamented W. C. P. Breckinridge, who figured so long and brilliantly in Congress.

The record of Mr. Breckinridge, as filed, is perhaps the most voluminous, interesting and entertaining of the leading statesmen who have gone before. It comprises many important matters of the greatest interest to those who care for important historical points connected with the Government. There are some matters in the record of such a character that they will not be made public for several years to come, and can only be seen by a personal letter to the librarian from Mr. Breckinridge. It is to be hoped that some member of Mr. Breckinridge's family, or some competent writer, will some day write a good history of the eminent Kentuckian.

Queer Ad.

"An Italian with a piano organ was turning the handle of his machine rapidly, but not a note was to be heard. I stopped at once. What on earth could be the matter?"

The speaker, an advertising agent, smiled.

"Finally," he said, "I went up close to the man.

"A breakdown?" I asked.

"He pointed to a small placard on the organ's front, and I read: 'The interior of the instrument has been removed. The relief that in consequence you experience is as nothing compared with that which immediately follows a dose of Surecure Cough Mixt.'

"It was an original ad," the expert ended, "and I followed it up. From what the Surecure people told me, I found that the same ingenuity and money put in legitimate newspaper advertising would have brought 50 per cent. more returns."—Exchange.

Alligator in Church.

The alligators are getting bad at Greenville, S. C., and are even taking the pools of the Baptist churches as places of refuge. A five-foot alligator was found in the pool of the Baptist church. The saurian was discovered by a plumber who waded into the pool for the purpose of repairing a leak, and he was scared out of a year's growth, as well as out of the water.

Kentucky Educational Convention.

The Kentucky Educational Association, which expected to use the new capitol at Frankfort and which would have been the first body of any kind to meet in the new building, will have to abandon its intention, as the building is not ready. The teachers will meet in the court house, which has already been engaged for them, and all the sessions will be held there. The meeting is going to be a large one, and it is estimated that the population of Frankfort will be increased about one thousand during the three days that the educators are there.

Especial Bargains in Lots.

I have some especial bargains in town lots left. One good one for $150, on easy payment plan. Three with concrete walks, shade trees and city water, etc., for $320 on easy payment plan. I will be glad to talk to you.

Respectfully,
15 tf DR. HENRY.

Special Term Called.

The regular term of the Harrison Circuit Court ends tomorrow, but Judge Fryer will call a special term to begin next Monday for the trial of the men who were indicted at the present term of Court, charged with being in the band of night riders that ruined a load of tobacco belonging to Marshall Haley near Cynthiana last February. The accused men are from Robertson county.

Off Again.

Governor Willson will leave Frankfort tomorrow night to attend the National Republican Convention at Chicago. It was intimated several days ago that the Governor would pass on the Powers and Howard cases before going to Chicago, but he has decided to take the papers to Chicago with him to peruse during his idle hours while the convention is in session.
